Easy Banking ... Step By Step

Getting Started...

Have your complete account number handy.

The first time you call, your social security number or tax ID number will be requested. This verifies your identity as the account holder.

Next, you will be instructed to enter your Personal Identification Number that only you know. All customers need to establish their own PIN, even on jointly owned accounts.

That's it! For subsequent calls, you need only enter your account number and PIN when asked.
